Research Stay Certificate

The undersigned, head of the Media Informatics Lab, research group linked to the School of Journalism & Mass Communication of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, hereby certify that Francisco Javier Jiménez Amores, Predoctoral Researcher assigned to the Audiovisual Content Observatory and the Department of Sociology and Communication of the University of Salamanca, and a student of the Doctoral Program Education in the Knowledge Society from the same University, has undertaken a research stay at our Institution from September 1, 2021 to December 1, 2021.

This research stay was framed in the development of his doctoral thesis, entitled “Development and evaluation of new strategies to analyze the rejection of migrants and refugees. Effects of framing and hate speech on the attitudes of rejection of European citizens towards forcibly displaced people”.

And for the record, I sign this document,

Andreas Veglis – professor

Head of Media Informatics Lab
